

Friday, February 12th: Piano concert by Kateryna Titova
 Winner of THE INTERNATIONAL XVI piano competition 2009 of the Rotary Club 70% of the proceeds will ALTEA for CARITAS, and EL30% to the Campaign "END TO POLIO", which is the main program Rotary Foundation humanitarian international development.
 Having studied at the Moscow Special Music School and Music College
 Münster (Germany), Kateryna Titova (1983), was part of the Philharmonic Kharkov and Odessa Philharmonic. As a soloist he has played in Russia, Europe and United States, working, among others, with the Netherlands Symphony Orchestra, the California Nova Vista Symphony, the Moscow Symphony Orchestra
 Vienna Chamber. He has won the top prize at international competitions piano such as the International Anton. G. Rubinstein in Dresden (Germany), San Nicola di Bari (Italy), International Russian Music Piano Competition in San Jose (California), the James Mottram Competition in Manchester and the "Alicia de Larrocha" in Andorra.

Organized by: Rotary Club

Price: € 10

Time: 20.30 h

Saturday February 13: Concert by the SINFÓNICA Y ORCHESTRA CHORUS
 Conservatory of Music of Murcia
 . The program, which includes the Symphonic Dances from West Side Story and the Chichester

Psalms by Bernstein and Chorus Villalobos No 10

The Symphony Orchestra and Chorus of the Conservatory of Music of Murcia has a long tradition related to the best students in your school.

Participate in such training enables them to develop an enriching experience to as a group and to the public, in addition to project the work of young soloists and directors

orchestra. Jose Miguel Rodilla, its current director, has directed prestigious guest Symphony orchestras including the RTVE, Madrid, Orquesta de Valencia, Asturias Symphony, Radio Symphony of Prague, Bilkent Symphony on Ankara, Beijing Symphony, National Radio of Romania, and Jalisco Philharmonic such as choirs and Pamplona Choral Society Choral Society Donostiarra. Ha collaborated with soloists such as Steven Isserlis, Ludmil Angelov, Michel Camilo, Carmen Linares, accompanying singers usually as important as Ana Maria Sanchez, Ainhoa Arteta, Steven Salters, Tatiana Davydova, Carlos Moreno and Luis Damaso.

Price: 6 €

Time: 20.30 h.

[Type text]